Re: Vann v. City of Rochester, et al.
Case No.: 18-cv-6464

Dear Judge Wolford:

On February 29, 2024 Plaintiff filed a partial Motion for Summary Judgment on the cause of action for Excessive Force in this matter. I am conducting the defense of a trial in Simmons v. Ferrigno, 17-cv-6176, scheduled before Judge Geraci, starting on April 9, 2024; all of my efforts, for the past month and until the trial is over, have and will be working towards completion of the trial.

I have spoken to Plaintiff's attorney, Mr. Shields, and he consents to an extension of time for my response to this motion. The Court's scheduling order set March 28 as the due date for the City's Response to this motion. The City respectfully requests an adjournment for the City's response time to May 20, 2024, representing a due date of approximately three weeks after completion of the trial. Plaintiff requests until June 28, 2024 to file reply, as Plaintiff's counsel is scheduled to begin a trial in a complex wrongful conviction case in the Court of Claims on June 5, 2024.

I have placed a so-ordered line at the end of this letter-motion if the Court were inclined to grant this extension.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/

Municipal Attorney

xc: Elliot D. Shields, Esq. (sent via electronic mail)

SO ORDERED:
